

IEL Open Day

The IEL doctoral programme in Comparative Analysis of Institutions, Economics and Law is run by a pool of well-known universities. It has a strong international orientation and provides a highly reputed scholarly education. The programme also offers a limited number of 3-year scholarships to its students.

Further details on the programme and partner institutions can be found at

On May 25th, 2010 IEL will host an "open day", during which potential candidates for the 2010/2011 class will have an opportunity to meet the IEL faculty and current students.

Interested candidates are asked to send their open day applications to Ms Leanne Duggan (iel@carloalberto.org) by no later than APRIL 25, 2010

The application should include:

- a curriculum vitae
- a 1 pages abstract summarizing the candidate's research interests

Upon request, IEL might offer financial support to a limited number of participants so as to help them meet their travel and accommodation expenses. A final decision to this effect will be reached and made known by MAY 4th 2010.

This year open day participants will also have the opportunity to attend the keynote lecture delivered by Frederic M. Scherer, Kennedy School of Government, Harvard University on 'The Roots of the U.S. Financial Crisis and the Ensuing "Too Big To Fail" Debate', which will be held at 9.30 am on the morning of 25th May.
